

In-Situ

SPRING/SUMMER 2021

VOLUME 24, NUMBER 2

President's Corner

Hey Everyone,

It's that time again for the summer edition of In-Situ!!!

Fun fact, this edition would have been out sooner, but I needed to write something and well, I just got to it.

For those of you that are attending the Great Basin Anthropological Conference, we'll see you there. The NAA will have a booth, so come on by and say "hi", sign up to be a member, renew your membership, or pick up some merch.

Something to look forward to from the NAA...our annual meeting! Well...not this year, 2021, but our 50th Annual meeting will be in earlier 2022 in the awesome town of Tonopah, NV. We'll provide more info to you fine folks in the months to come.

Well, I'm not a person of many words so this is goodbye for now.

Hope everyone is doing well! ☺

Best wishes,
Victor Villagran

Annual Meeting News

The 2021 NAA Annual Meeting was digital for the first (and hopefully last) time this past March!

We are looking forward to an in-person meeting next Spring in Tonopah!

More details to come in our Fall/Winter 2021 In Situ.

Association Updates

Bylaws

The NAA's Association Bylaws have recently undergone a revision! Primarily, the Board intended these updates to provide clarity for the NAA's anti-harassment policy; and secondarily, we hope these changes modernize the way the Board and membership can meet, e.g. online or via conference calls.

Questions, additional update suggestions, and concerns were discussed during the Annual General Membership Meeting on March 27, 2021.

The Bylaw updates were accepted by the Board, and will now undergo a third party outside legal review.

NAA Board Handbook

The NAA has drafted a Handbook for its Board Members. This document outlines the membership and Board Member roles, more formally defines the Association's Activities, presents and defines awards and scholarships, structures the NAA's anti-harassment policy and code of ethics, and defines our conduct with membership data.

Many members contributed to the drafting of the Handbook including Pat Barker, Mark Giambastiani, Sean McMurry, Victor Villagran, Andrew McCarthy, and Ashlee Younie.

This draft was discussed during the Annual Board Meeting on March 27, 2021. The draft was accepted by the Board, and will now undergo a third party outside legal review. ⚔

Call for Nominations

Ting-Perkins Award 2022

The NAA Board needs your help finding the 2022 Ting -Perkins Awardee!

The Ting-Perkins award is presented for outstanding avocational contributions to archaeology in Nevada.

Please send your nomination suggestions and a brief description of the individual's avocational contributions to archaeology in Nevada to by December 1st to anymousie@gmail.com.

The award honors Dr. Peter Ting (first President of Am-Arcs in 1967 and head of the Nevada Archaeological Survey) and Fay Perkins (in 1924 brought “El Pueblo Grande de Nevada” to the attention of Governor James Scrugham and became curator of the Lost City Museum [1952-1956]).

Call for Nominations

INFORMATION ON MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Membership categories are Regular, Family, Student, Corporate, Supporter, and Patron. Each member shall receive all of the NAA regular publications for the dues year and shall have one vote in the proceedings of the association. Publications include the In Situ newsletter and the annual Nevada Archaeologist journal.

Starting in 2020, Student members will have the option to pay a standard membership fee of $25 or to pay a $45 fee that will include registration for the Annual Meeting on March 6-8, 2020 in Pahrump! Student members paying the $45 fee should submit a registration form at the meeting but will not be charged the registration fee.

Supporter and Patron members will receive one complimentary registration to the annual conference for the dues year and will be recognized in the conference program. Additionally, Patron members will receive one gratis banquet ticket for the conference.

Honorary members may be elected by a majority vote of the Board on recommendation of any member (in good standing) of the NAA. Each honorary member shall have full privileges in the association, which shall last their lifetime. Each corporate member shall assign one individual to cast its vote at the proceedings of the association.

Organizations wishing to be affiliated with the NAA must first apply in writing to the NAA Board. The applicant must include a current copy of the organization's bylaws and Code of Ethics. The NAA Board shall review applications at the next scheduled Board meeting following receipt of the application. Affiliated organizations pay dues at the Supporting level.

INFORMATION ON CHAPTERS

Members of the NAA may form local or topical chapters of the Association. Requests for new chapters must be made in writing to the NAA Board, and will be reviewed at the next scheduled NAA Board meeting.
